Our terms for services agreed upon are as follows as outlined in this Cinematic Package

- Two video camera's operated by two cinematographers
- 8 hours of shooting on wedding day

If due to personal illness, injury, or other circumstances, and/or acts of God, beyond the control of DL Video Productions, and DL Video Productions is unable to perform as contracted, substitute wedding videographers of high qualifications, subject to acceptance by the client, may be sent to fulfill the obligations of DL Video Productions. If the client declines the substitute wedding videographers, the client may instead terminate this agreement and DL Video agrees to refund all amounts paid. This contract then becomes null and void.
